

LARGE WOOD TOOLS

- tools for the evaluation of Large Wood flooding
- consider the hydraulics conditions in each sections calculated using a simplified 1D model (water depth, velocity and discharge)
- vegetation data can be derived from CHM and FSV or directly given in input as single trees with the height as attribute
- GIS based: input and output are GIS layers

GENERAL WORKFLOW

